

At Saling Wealth Advisors, we understand that we exist because of you, our clients. While we work with families from different backgrounds with varying needs, there's one thing each has in common: The need for a lifelong financial plan designed to help you create the life you want for today, tomorrow and whatever comes next. We take our responsibility very seriously and value the trust you have placed in us.

Many of our clients have been gracious enough to refer other families to Saling Wealth Advisors, knowing we will provide them with the highest level of advice and support, as we strive to do with all of our clients. Because we want to continue to provide the best possible guidance as the firm grows, and because you are integral to our success, we wanted to share some important news with you. Tendai Charasika, Saling Wealth Advisor's new Chief Strategy Officer, has joined Saling Wealth Advisors.

Tendai will be joining for the express purpose of supporting and providing strategic guidance for your business and family, as well as developing, communicating, executing and sustaining strategic initiatives that will allow the firm to deliver more to clients. With over 15 years of diversified experience as a business leader (click here to read Tendai's bio), Tendai adds a wealth of knowledge and insight to support the development of the firm and to ensure that we continue to provide the same high level of advice and responsiveness to you as your needs expand and grow.

As always, thank you for letting Saling Wealth Advisors serve as your trusted advisor. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

Eric Saling, CFP®
